User selects Scenario from a specific Unit (High Risk Deliveries)

User selects Skill level that scenario will run at.

Unit: High Risk Deliveries

Signifies which unit (version) of Steps Insitu platform being used

Scenario: Scenario 1

Signifies which scenario is being performed from the above unit

Skill Level: Intermediate

1.PPV will return positive chest movement specific to team skill level
2.Intubation attempts will return a success specific to team skill level
3.Reposition ETT attempts will return a success specific to team skill level
4.Transillumination will return a positive/negative pneumothorax pending requirements
5.Vital signs depreciate with conditionals (no PPV, prolonged time between actions, programmed actions).
-prolonged time between actions is a reduction of <SpO2> and a <HR> specific to team skill level
6.Scenario will end when scenario objectives are met

Choose your Objectives for Scenario

Choose From Objectives from a selectable list specific to unit selected.

Oxygen Source: Flow Inflating Bag

Applies the following rules to scenario
1. Anytime participant Oxygen flow is equal, or less than 7 liters flow the output will default to (PPV with no chest movement) and debrief will mention insufficient flow.

Begin Scenario

Run scenario with above rules

End Scenario and Debrief Screen

Save and submit

Access to view scenario debrief goes to:

- Educator (optional)
- Facilitator involved in this scenario
- Each participant involved in this scenario

Database management for this scenario

- Add +1 to total scenarios completed
- Add +1 to Scenarios completed from "High Risk Deliveries" unit
- Add +1 to "Scenario 1" completed
- Identify and categorize this scenario "Scenario 1" completed at "Intermediate Level" (adding to percentage of "Scenario 1's" completed at this level)
- If any medical errors took place then add +1 to Total Medical Errors and +1 to the category of medical errors. (Medication or procedural)

Each user involved will receive account credit of

- Facilitator of Scenario will receive +1 to Scenarios Facilitated
- Participants of Scenario will receive +1 to Scenarios Participated